

What is Pundi Perempuan

Pundi Perempuan is a public fundraising medium to support the works and initiatives of Women Crisis Centers and humanitarian workers in Indonesia.

Pundi Perempuan was initiated by the National Commission on Violence Against Women (Komnas Perempuan) in 2000.

Since 2003, in cooperation with Indonesia for Humanity (IKa) to do public fundraise initiatives, fund management and disbursement.

Women Crisis Centers work to provide assistance to women victims of violence ranging from reporting, psychological counseling, legal assistance to the victim empowerment by integrating the concept of recovery in broad meaning.

Why do we need to support Pundi Perempuan?

Violence against Women cases continue to increase annually. There were 279,688 cases in 2013 to 321,725 cases in 2016

Every day, at least
35 WOMEN
(INCLUDING GIRLS)
are sexually abused

Women Crisis Centers are built independently by communities or individuals with strong concern in the issue of Violence against Women

“In 2003, we started a community-based assistance in the village of Sunda Kelapa, North Bengkulu using Pundi Perempuan fund. Sunda Kelapa became the first village in Indonesia to have a community-based service and supported by the village regulations. The support from Pundi Perempuan became the forerunner of the community-based services that Cahaya Perempuan now develops.”

Tety Sumeri, WCC Cahaya Perempuan Bengkulu

Public Support is the power for Pundi Perempuan to be able to continue to assist Women Crisis Centers initiatives in addressing the issue of Violence against Women and its prevention in Indonesia.
